RE: STEWART, GREENBLATT, MANNING & BAEZ ANNOUNCES TWO NEW PARTNERS

SYOSSET, N.Y. (JULY 1, 2021) – STEWART, GREENBLATT, MANNING & BAEZ, the Premier Workers' Compensation Defense Law Firm, is proud to announce that Luke R. Tarantino and Thomas A. Lumpkin will become partners of the firm effective July 1, 2021. We are delighted to welcome these two exceptionally talented lawyers who have distinguished themselves as attorneys, share in our firm's unwavering commitment to our clients and will continue to add significant depth to our Workers' Compensation defense and litigation practice.

Luke R. Tarantino graduated from the State University of New York at Binghamton, in 2010 and from St. John's University School of Law in 2014. During his time as a law student, Mr. Tarantino interned for Judge David Sullivan of the Nassau County Criminal Court and worked as a law clerk at an insurance defense firm in New York City. He also interned for the St. John's Consumer Justice for the Elderly; litigation clinic, wherein he represented low-income Queens residents in cases involving consumer fraud and debt collection. Mr. Tarantino joined our firm in 2014 and was admitted to practice law in the State of New York in February, 2015.

Thomas A. Lumpkin graduated from Hofstra University in 2011 and from Fordham University School of Law in 2014. Prior to graduation, Mr. Lumpkin interned with the Nassau County Attorney's Office and participated in Fordham's Community Economic Development Clinic.

Mr. Lumpkin joined our firm in January, 2015 and was admitted to practice law in the State of New York in April, 2015.

Very truly yours,
STEWART, GREENBLATT, MANNING & BAEZ
